Incident Summary: On 03/15/2022 at approximately 5:55pm, Columbus Police Officer responded to the area Winner Ave and Phale D Hale Drive on the report of someone shootinf a gun. While Officer were enroute to that location a person arrived at a area hospital with a gunshot wound, stating that he was shot in that area. The victim E. H., was in stable condition but went right into surgery. E. H. explained that he was sitting in the front passenger seat when he was struck by a bullet that came through the windshield.

A second victim S.O. that was driving the vehicle but was not struck explained that she was getting something out of her other vehicle and when she got back into her vehicle the windshield exploded. S.O. explained that E.H. said I've been hit, get me to the hospital. Neither victim seen who was shooting, and there was a bullet hole in the windshield.

This incident is still under investigation.
